HP Espresso Notebook Sleeve

Stylish protection for your Notebook PC

Look good on the run. The HP Espresso Notebook Sleeve is made of plush-lined HP Espresso Imprint neoprene for protection without bulk. Carry it alone or slip it into your favourite bag to keep your PC safe and your accessories organized all day long.

• Cushy protection without the bulk

Tough on the outside, soft on the inside. The HP Espresso Notebook Sleeve's neoprene exterior protects your PC from dust, dirt, and debris, while the soft plush lining shields it against spills, scratches and dings.

• Stay organized on the go

One secure pocket is all you need. Keep your power cord, mobile mouse, and important papers tucked neatly and securely away in the HP Espresso Notebook Sleeve's outside pocket.

• Now you see it, now you don't

Save space with handle that tucks away. The HP Espresso Notebook Sleeve features a retractable handle that's easy to carry when pulled out, and out of sight when not in use.

• Slim go-anywhere profile

Versatile protection for your PC. The HP Espresso Notebook Sleeve offers full protection on its own, plus it's slim enough to slip into your favourite bag.

• Distinction that's in the details

Want to stand out from the black computer case crowd? The HP Espresso Notebook Sleeve is understated enough to take anywhere, with a subtle, yet distinctive Imprint pattern of concentric circles to reflect your personal style.
